

1. Argan Oil

a) Moroccanoil Treatment

- Benefits: Rich in vitamin E and essential fatty acids, it hydrates and softens hair, reduces frizz, and enhances shine.
- Price: ₹3,200 for 100ml.
- Reviews: Highly rated for its non-greasy formula; users report softer, manageable hair without heaviness.
- Disadvantages: Higher price point; may not suit very fine hair if used excessively.

b) Biotique Argan Oil

- Benefits: Nourishes and strengthens hair while promoting shine and softness.
- Price: ₹399 for 100ml.
- Reviews: Generally positive; users appreciate its lightweight texture and effectiveness.
- Disadvantages: Some users find the scent strong.

2. Jojoba Oil

a) Soulflower Jojoba Oil

- Benefits: Mimics natural scalp oil, helps balance oil production, and moisturizes without clogging pores.
- Price: ₹599 for 100ml.
- Reviews: Users love its lightness and moisturizing properties; effective for dry scalp.
- Disadvantages: Some find it less effective for deep conditioning.

b) Kama Ayurveda Jojoba Oil

- Benefits: Hydrates hair and scalp, promotes healthy growth.
- Price: ₹1,050 for 100ml.
- Reviews: Highly rated for its purity and effectiveness; many report improved hair texture.
- Disadvantages: Pricey compared to other oils.

3. Olive Oil

1) Plum Olive Hair Oil

- Benefits: Deeply nourishes hair, adds shine, and reduces frizz.
- Price: ₹399 for 100ml.
- Reviews: Users appreciate its lightweight feel and effectiveness in taming frizz.
- Disadvantages: Some find it slightly greasy if too much is applied.

2) Soulflower Olive Oil

- Benefits: Rich in antioxidants, promotes hair growth and health.
- Price: ₹499 for 200ml.
- Reviews: Generally positive; users note significant improvement in hair softness.
- Disadvantages: Can feel heavy if used excessively.

4. Almond Oil

1) Bajaj Almond Drops Hair Oil

- Benefits: Enriched with vitamin E, it nourishes without weighing hair down.
- Price: ₹250 for 650ml.
- Reviews: Popular among users for its lightweight nature and affordability; good for daily use.
- Disadvantages: Some may find it less effective than pure almond oil.

2) Oriental Botanics Almond Oil

- Benefits: Strengthens hair, prevents breakage, and adds shine.
- Price: ₹499 for 200ml.
- Reviews: Positive feedback on its nourishing properties without greasiness.
- Disadvantages: Scent may not appeal to everyone.

5. Onion Oil

1) TNW Onion Hair Oil

- Benefits: Promotes hair growth, reduces hair fall, and improves scalp health due to anti-fungal properties.
- Price: ₹399 for 100ml.
- Reviews: Users report visible results in hair thickness; generally well-received for effectiveness.
- Disadvantages: Strong onion scent can be off-putting.

2) Luxura Sciences Onion Hair Oil

- Benefits: Nourishes the scalp, strengthens roots, and prevents premature greying.
- Price: ₹499 for 200ml.
- Reviews: Many users appreciate the non-greasy formula; effective against dandruff as well.
- Disadvantages: Scent may linger longer than expected.

6. Amla Oil

1) Kama Ayurveda Amla Hair Oil

- Benefits: Strengthens hair follicles, promotes growth, and adds shine while preventing premature greying.
- Price: ₹1,050 for 200ml.
- Reviews: Highly rated; users love the results in terms of reduced breakage and improved texture.
- Disadvantages: Higher price point may deter some buyers.

2) Baidyanath Amla Hair Oil

- Benefits: Nourishes scalp and strengthens hair from root to tip; rich in vitamin C.
- Price: ₹300 for 200ml.
- Reviews: Generally favorable; users note enhanced shine and softness after use.
- Disadvantages: Some find it slightly heavy compared to other oils.